

“What a difference it has made to me. I really love the company. If I had the chance, I would go every day.”

Be our guest

Are you aged 75 or over, living alone, and finding it difficult to get out and about?

Our Sunday Contact Teas are a chance for a change of scenery and regular afternoons of conversation and laughter with friends of all ages.

Bringing generations together

At Re-engage, we arrange local afternoon tea parties for small groups of people and most of them are just like you - over 75, on their own, and hoping to find new ways to get out and about that suit them at this time of life.

Re-engage groups meet right across the UK every month on a Sunday afternoon and our local volunteers even provide transport to and from the tea party so that you have nothing to worry about and no costs to pay.
